

DRUPALCON
LONDON

SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITIES
THE NEW BREED OF DRUPAL EVENTS

Why organize events?

because...

I

ME

The best reason for altruism is self-interest

Some people just want to increase their Drupal karma

Others see it as a way to find customers

Events are great for recruiting employees

Regional events are great for building partnerships

Vertical events can help you establish thought leadership in a market segment

New types of events

Drupal CXO summit: networking & sharing best practices with colleagues

DRUPAL
GOVERNMENT DAYS
Brussels, 7 - 9 April

Drupal Gov Days

Overview

Questions to be addressed

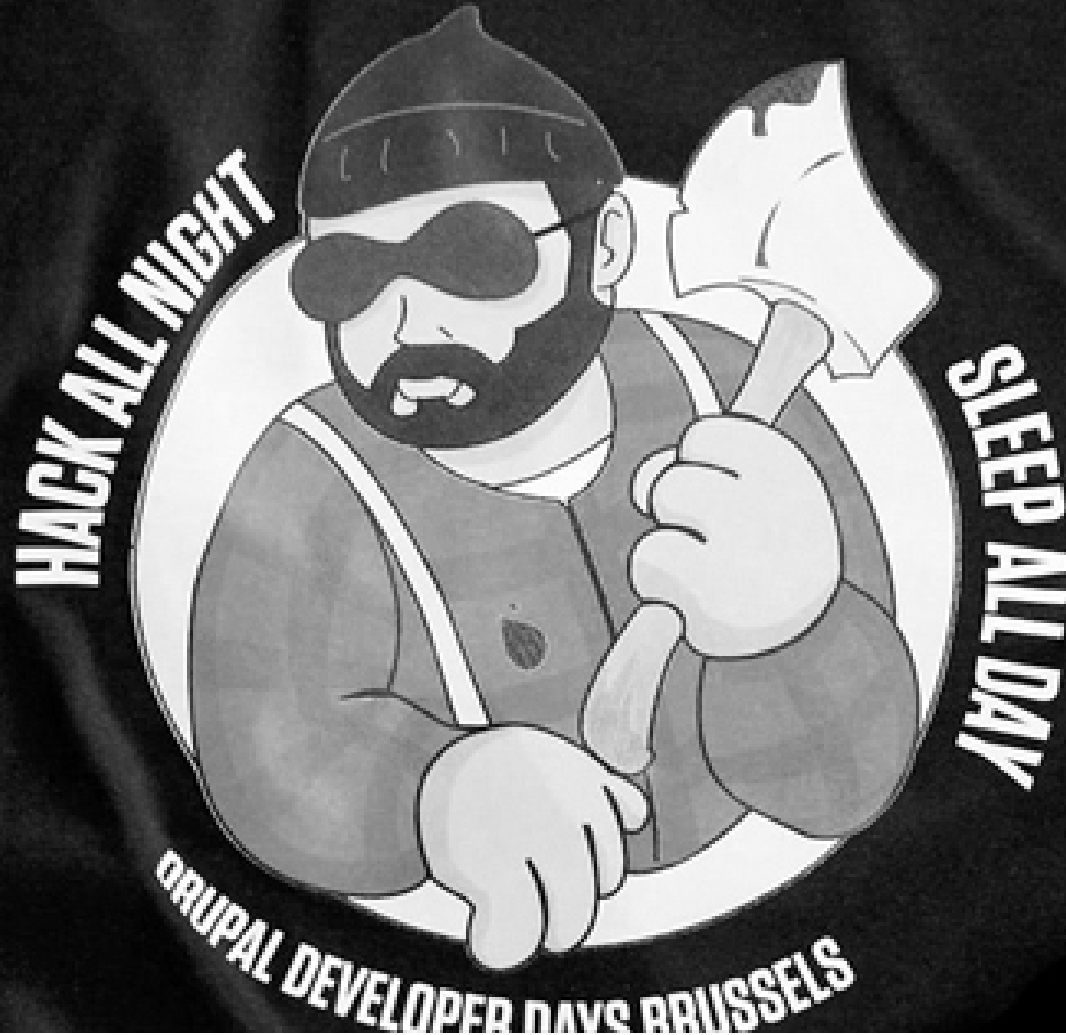

- What do government sites need from Drupal?
- What use cases can OpenPublic solve for government?
- Why the open Gov movement needs Drupal?
- How does a distribution like OpenPublic work?
- What does OpenPublic do?
- How can I extend OpenPublic?
- How can I integrate to OpenPublic?

Drupal Design Camp

DRUPAL DESIGN
CAMP BERLIN

25 + 26 JUNE 2011

Drupal Business Days

What motivates people to join or leave the (local) Drupal community? Why are some more active than others?

What kinds of goals and objectives can communities set for ourselves? How do we measure our success against those goals?

Why do connections with other Drupal user groups, open source projects, and local communities matter? How can we better evangelize Drupal in all these areas?

Thank You!
